

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

Implementation Training 2022 Cohort Team Program

- Learn all the components needed to design, implement & operate a successful Restorative Justice Program (adult or juvenile, pre-diversion, diversion or court ordered).
- From working with victims to training volunteers, this training will cover all the necessary philosophical, paperwork, process, development & design resources needed for launching, evaluating and delivering a Restorative Justice Program.
- Training provided by Kris Miner, who successfully led a Restorative Justice program from concept to sustainability. Kris has over 20 years of Restorative Justice experience from simple to serious crime cases and from preschool to prison work experience. www.Circle-space.org for more information.
- Training will be 8 days over 4 months, the first and third Fridays from March 2022 until June 2022.
- Individualized coaching of 6 hours per month is available to each site participating.

Program Structure:

- Virtually delivered via Zoom. Two-days per month, each 8-hour training days. Training days will be 8 am – Noon & 1 pm – 5 pm CST. Participation will be limited to 20 participants.
- Each site will be encouraged to attend as a team (up to 5). Not all team members need to attend every training. Your team should include: 1) staff facilitating 2) supervisor 3) victim advocate 4) law enforcement 5) community/volunteer coordinator.

- In addition to 64 hours of training, each site will be offered 6 hours of individualized coaching support.

This will provide an opportunity to address individual challenge unique to each location. Specialized trouble-shooting and comprehensive development guidance will be provided.

- The training dates will begin March 2022, anticipated to be delivered the first & third Friday.

Investment: This opportunity is provided for $1,875.00 per site (5 staff). If your agency would like to have more than 5 people participate, please contact Kris to discuss the adjusted rate. Questions, contact Kris at 605-831-0119.
